Karpooradi tailam

This oil contains tree camphor, one of the magical healers of nature, used since generations.

If you feel tired, if you feel that you have no energy, karpooradi tailam is the best answer for you. It wakes you up and makes the body active. Karpooradi tailam is known to regulate the body temperature driving away mood changes and sluggishness. Tree camphor has been used for generations in religious ceremonies and for medical purposes. Tree camphor is mixed and finely pulverized with ajowan and added to an ajowan decoction. The production process is carefully monitored and so that the natural aroma and the medical effects blend with the sesame oil. This blending of herbs takes 4-5 days in a low heat. The karpooradi tailam so prepared has a unique consistency. The Karpooradi Tailam soothes the muscles and nerves and relaxes the body. The mystical effect of the Karpooradi Tailam produces a feeling of calmness and tranquillity in the body.
